Year Plan

- Additional work in pairs - work on Logical Actions (next slide)
- KJ assists individually
- Categories: Artistic, Personal, Money, Day Job, Educational, Service
- You may change these categories up if you have a compelling reason to do so—talk to KJ

Logical Actions

- Choose one of your goals
- List the logical actions that will get you there
- Most of the individual logical actions do not take a lot of time
- Fit them into your 5-year plan

Accessibility

- In the entertainment industry (and most any other profession) the adage “it’s who you know” is true
- Finding success in the business has everything to do with creating relationships

- You also need to find out the rules of the game, and they vary from region to region as well as from industry to industry
- Accessibility is the key, and it is often limited by TIME, MONEY, and EDUCATION
- How do you plan to create relationships--real relationships with people in the industry?

Let's Look at Your Finances – Do Not Be Afraid

Student Loans

- How much do you have?
- What is your plan to pay them off?
- Understand your situation NOW
- Put it in your 5-year plan

Scholarships

- If you are in the middle of your education, have you looked at all of your options for scholarships?
- We often have theatre specific scholarships that go untapped—scholarship deadlines are every spring—watch for details

Credit Card Debt

- What debt do you have now?
- How do you plan to pay it off?
- What is your plan moving forward?
- Suggested for good credit rating: keep one or two cards and pay them off each month
- Not always possible in the real world
- What is your real-world plan?

Initial Expenses in the Industry

- Professional headshots (actors)

- Portfolio/Website (technicians)
- Union or Professional Association Fees – find out what they are – plan ahead
- Wardrobe – what clothes are you going to need for auditions, PR jobs, interviews?
- Transportation
- Relocation (rent, utilities, storage)
- Are you staying in Denver but moving out of your family's home?
- Health Insurance (www.healthcare.gov) Still have Affordable Care (for now)
